Gap Funding Initiative for Neuromuscular Disorders (GIN)

The Duchenne Foundation acts as a secretariat for the Gap Funding Initiative for Neuromuscular Disorders (GIN).

The aim of GIN, by either singular or collective means, is to support the search for viable treatments for neuromuscular conditions by supporting fundable but unsuccessful NHMRC applicants.

These awards are considered gap funding grants but the scope may also be at the discretion of the grantor(s).

For further information, please see:

or direct enquires to PMartin@mdasa.org.au