1. The TCR Proposal is a comprehensive document that details the background and prior work in the specific field, and presents a case for a Targeted Call for Research by addressing the Principles for Consideration of a TCR, outlined in the ‘Framework for Identification and Prioritisation of Targeted Calls for Research’. To assist with the development of a TCR Proposal, a template has been developed, outlining the key information to be included.

2. The call-specific Grant Opportunity Guidelines will include the background to the call, scope, aims and objectives, desired outcomes, examples of research that will not be supported and the proposed budget.

An Expert Group develops the TCR Proposal into the call-specific Grant Opportunity Guidelines, with input from the group that developed the TCR Proposal.
