NHMRC Myalgic encephalomyelitis and chronic fatigue syndrome (ME/CFS) Advisory Committee: Summary of Disclosure of Interests

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Role</th>
<th>Interests</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Professor Kwun Fong (Chair)</td>
<td>Director of the University of Queensland Thoracic Research Centre&lt;br&gt;Thoracic and Sleep Physician at The Prince Charles Hospital&lt;br&gt;Deputy Co-Chair of Medical Services Advisory Committee&lt;br&gt;Has held numerous state and national advisory committee roles.&lt;br&gt;Invited speaker to many conferences around the world - some conferences are sponsored by pharmaceutical companies.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dr Gary Deed (Member)</td>
<td>Medical Practitioner and Chair of Diabetes Specific Interest Network&lt;br&gt;Member of ME/CFS/FM Support Association in Queensland and has given a talk for this society&lt;br&gt;Speaker on stress and insomnia at various locations, sponsored by Sanofi (pharmaceutical company).</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Professor Rachel Ankeny (Member)</td>
<td>No interests to declare&lt;br&gt;Professor, School of Humanities, University of Adelaide&lt;br&gt;Has been on numerous state and federal government Ethics Committees.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Associate Professor Suzanne Broadbent (Member)</td>
<td>No interests to declare&lt;br&gt;Program Lead – Clinical Exercise Science, School of Health and Sports Sciences, University of the Sunshine Coast&lt;br&gt;Current research interests include ME/CFS immune responses and rehabilitation; chronic liver disease exercise and dietary effects on immune function, physical capacity and life expectancy and exercise prescriptions for cancer patients.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Professor Andrew Lloyd (Member)</td>
<td>Research grants received in relation to ME/CFS research from NHMRC, Centre for Disease control (US), Mason Foundation, Australian Rotary Foundation and Meat &amp; Livestock Australia.&lt;br&gt;Received support for travel and accommodation for a Gilead (biopharmaceutical company) sponsored speaker tour&lt;br&gt;Leads the Viral Immunology Systems Program in the Kirby Institute, University of New South Wales</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
• Infectious disease physician and an epidemiology, virology and immunology researcher.

Professor Sonya Marshall-Gradisnik (Member)

- Co-Inventor of a screening/diagnostic test for ME/CFS
- Director of National Centre for Neuroimmunology and Emerging Diseases, Griffith University
- Research focused towards identifying biomarkers of ME/CFS for translation into the clinical environment
- Head Reviewer and Chairperson for National Institutes of Health (NIH) Centre for Research Excellence Applications for ME/CFS in USA.

Dr Kathy Rowe (Member)

- Received support for travel and accommodation for NIH Special Emphasis Panel for ME/CFS in USA and New Zealand ME/CFS Society lecture tour in 2014.
- Part of the International Committee for the Case Definition of CFS, CFS Service Review Advisory Group.
- Senior Consultant Physician, Royal Children’s Hospital, Melbourne.

Ms Simone Eyssens (Member)

- No interests to declare.

Ms Sally Missing (Member)

- President, Emerge Australia

Ms Penelope McMillan (Member)

- President, ME/CFS Australia (SA)