

ME/CFS Advisory Committee

Register of Disclosed Interests

Member	Summary of disclosed interests	Update date	Management strategy if conflict
Professor Kwun Fong (Chair)	A. Relevant financial activities Research grants received from NHMRC and grants for overseas travel and accommodation, but none relate to ME/CFS research. B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience Current President and former Secretary-General/Office Bearer of the Asian Pacific Society of Respiriology, Chair of Lung Foundation Australia’s Lung Cancer Consultative Group and Co-Deputy Chair of Medical Services Advisory Committee. C. Other relationships or activities Participated in Astra-Zeneca clinical trial research on the prevalence of a particular mutation in lung cancer in 2014.	On appointment
Dr Gary Deed	A. Relevant financial activities Sanofi honoraria for talks on stress and insomnia for which he receives fees. B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience Board member and Chair of RACGP Diabetes network. He is also a member of the ME/CFS/FM Support Association. C. Other relationships or activities Co-editor of “General Practice Management of type 2 diabetes”-RACGP/Diabetes Australia. Educational support and	On appointment consultancy in diabetes.

Professor Rachel Ankeny	A. Relevant financial activities Research grants received from NHMRC in 2005-10. B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience None disclosed C. Other relationships or activities None disclosed	On appointment
Associate Professor Suzanne Broadbent	A. Relevant financial activities 2018 Mason Foundation Grant, awarded to Dr Sonja Coetzee from Southern Cross University as Chief Investigator A, and Dr Suzanne Broadbent as chief investigator B (University of the Sunshine Coast). Project: A 6-month aquatic exercise programme for individuals with CFS/ME: potential benefits for symptoms, health and physical capacity. B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience None disclosed C. Other relationships or activities None disclosed	March 2018
Professor Andrew Lloyd	A. Relevant financial activities Research grants received in relation to ME/CFS research from NHMRC, Centers for Disease control (USA), Mason Foundation, Australian Rotary Foundation, and Meat & Livestock Australia. He also received research grants unrelated to ME/CFS from NHMRC, National Institutes of Health (NIH) (US), Cancer Australia, Komen Foundation (US), Gilead Sciences, MSD and	7 March 2018

	Bristol Meyers Squibb. He further received support for travel and accommodation for speaker tours for Gilead Sciences unrelated to ME/CFS. B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience None disclosed C. Other relationships or activities Appeared as an expert witness in cases relating to ME/CFS. Provided expert advice to the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) on processes for assessment of applications to the scheme from patients with ME/CFS
Professor Sonya Marshall-Gradisnik	A. Relevant financial activities Co-inventor for the screening/diagnostic test for ME/CFS. B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience None disclosed C. Other relationships or activities None disclosed	On appointment
Dr Kathy Rowe	A. Relevant financial activities Received support for travel and accommodation for NIH Health Panel for ME/CFS and New Zealand ME/CFS Society lecture tour. Received a complementary ticket to EMERGE Australia's ME/CFS Symposium held during March 2019. B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience Member of International Association ME/CFS and Victorian ME/CFS Society. C. Other relationships or activities	On appointment March 2019

	Lectures and seminars for national and international ME/CFS societies, students, hospital staff and education staff.
Ms Simone Eyssens	A. Relevant financial activities None disclosed B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience Member of #MEAction Network Australia and Emerge Australia. C. Other relationships or activities Set up a website in a voluntary capacity to raise funds for two Melbourne ME/CFS researchers.	On appointment
Ms Penelope McMillan	A. Relevant financial activities None disclosed B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience President of ME/CFS Australia (SA), Director of ME/CFS Australia, Administrator of #MEAction Network Australia and Moderator of ME/CFS Australia online support group. C. Other relationships or activities None disclosed	On appointment
Ms Sally Missing	A. Relevant financial activities None disclosed B. Relevant Professional or organisational experience C. President (Former 2012 - 2018) of Emerge Australia D. Other relationships or activities None disclosed	On Appointment Updated January 2019	