

Australian Government

National Health and Medical Research Council

Attachment C

Summary of member expertise and declarations

Member	Expertise	Declarations
Professor Lisa Bero (Chair)	Professor Bero has an interest in the translation of science into clinical practice and health policy, with a particular focus on methods for assessing bias in the design, conduct and dissemination of research. Professor Bero has sat on a number of international committees related to conflicts of interest and research. She has widely published in many journals and her current research program covers bias, meta-analysis and systematic reviews, pharmaceutical policy, tobacco control policy and methods for environmental hazard and risk assessment.	Full-time employment at The University of Colorado Senior Editor, Cochrane Public Health and Health Services Network and Research Integrity Travel support to present at the 34th Annual Meeting of the European Society of Human Reproduction and Embryology (ESHRE) 2018. Published extensively on methods for systematic review and risk of bias assessment impact of conflicts of interest and funding sources on the design, conduct and publication of research. NHMRC project grant 2018-2020 (no-cost extension into 2021) External Conflicts of Interest Advisor for the Canadian Health Product and Food Branch (HPFB)'s future Nutrition Science Advisory Committee (NSAC) and the Science Advisory Committee for Health Products Containing Cannabis (SAC-HPCC) for which she receive hourly consultant payments. Member of the NHMRC Synthesis and Translation of Research Evidence Advisory Group.
Associate Professor Bernadette Richards	Bernadette Richards, BA, LLB (Hons), PhD is an Adjunct Associate Professor of Law at Queensland University of Technology, Australian Centre for Health Law Research and Adelaide University. She is the President of the Australasian Association of Bioethics and Health Law and is a member of the NHMRC's Australian Health Ethics Committee, the	Will conduct research and funds will support appointment of Post Doc researchers to assist in the research. Current member of 3 NHMRC Principle Committees as listed.

T 1300 NHMRC (1300 064 672) or +61 2 6217 9000

16 Marcus Clarke Street, Canberra ACT 2601
GPO Box 1421, Canberra ACT 2601

info@nhmrc.gov.au
nhmrc.gov.au

Australian Government

National Health and Medical Research Council

	Embryo Research Licensing Committee and Dietary Guidelines Governance Committee and was the Chair of the Mitochondrial Donation Expert Working Committee. An active researcher, she has completed major projects on organ donation, consent to treatment and legal issues around innovative surgery. She is a chief investigator on three current major grants, NHMRC Partnership Grant, “Strategies for the inclusion of vulnerable populations in developing complex and sensitive public policy: A case study in Advance Care Planning”, NHMRC Ideas Grant, ‘The algorithm will see you now: ethical, legal and social implications of adopting machine learning systems for diagnosis and screening’ and ARC Discovery Grant, ‘Support or Sales? Medical Device Representatives in Australian Hospitals’. She is currently writing a book ‘Technology, Healthcare and the Law: An evolving relationship’ to be published in the first half of 2021 and has published over 80 journal articles, book chapters and books.
Doctor Hilda Bastian	Doctor Bastian has an interest in epidemiology and effectiveness research. Doctor Bastian was a founding member and has held multiple roles at the Cochrane Collaboration. She was formerly a senior clinical research scientist at the US National Institutes of Health, in its National Centre for Biotechnology Information. Doctor Bastian headed the Health Information Department at the National Institute of Quality and Efficiency in Health Care in Germany. Her research interest is in factors affecting the validity of systematic reviews.	Freelance paid and unpaid writing for commercial and non-commercial outlets, including PLOS and BMJ. Dean’s Scholarship (fee waiver) for the PhD program at Bond University (2010-2020) Editorial board, Drugs and Therapeutics Bulletin (since 2020) Leader of Independent Advisory Group for Stakeholder engagement in high-profile reviews pilot (Cochrane Collaboration). Lectures on research integrity with travel and accommodation, University of Utah (2018)

Australian Government

National Health and Medical Research Council

		Speaker, World Conference of Science Journalists (2019) Senior Clinical Scientist, National Centre for Biotechnology Information at the US National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health (2011-2018). Speaker, Virginia Commonwealth University (2017) Speaker, University of Utah (2017)
Adjunct Professor Davina Gherzi	Professor Gherzi is the Senior advisor to the NHMRC Chief Executive Officer on all aspects of the evaluation and use of research evidence, including research funded by NHMRC and clinical practice, public health and environmental health guidelines produced by the agency. She is experienced in leading clinical trials, cohort study and guideline reform. Prof Gherzi has published extensively in peer reviewed journals on the topic of best practice methodologies and processes for public health and guideline development.	Member of the Cochrane Collaboration Academic appointment, The University of Sydney World Health Organisation, Nutrition Department Chair, NHMRC Synthesis and Translation of Research Evidence Advisory Group
Professor Ian Olver	Professor Olver has been instrumental in establishing multiple oncology clinics across Australia. He has held many leadership positions in the area of oncology and research. In 2020 he accepted the position of Professorial Research Fellow, School of Psychology, Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences, University of Adelaide and Adjunct Professor, School of Public Health, in the Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences. He has published over 330 articles in journals, 28 book chapters and 4 books. Professor Olver has served on many ethics committees including the Australian Health Ethics Committee of the NHMRC for 9 years and was chair	Employed by the University of Adelaide Holds one NHMRC grant on implementation science which may related to the Guidelines Committee and one ARC Discovery project relating to alcohol consumption. Engaged in educational activities in the past 5 years with Teasro, Helsinn, Teva, Seqirus, Merck. Consult for Bellberry Ethics Committee Australian Research Council Medical Research Advisory Group VieCure Clinical Advisory Committee

Australian Government

National Health and Medical Research Council

	for 6 years until 2018. He also served on the NHMRC Council for 6 years. He serves on the Cancer Monitoring Advisory Group of the Australian Institute of Health and Welfare. He currently chairs the Board for the Sax Institute in Sydney and the Adolescent and Young Adult Advisory Board to Canteen. Professor Olver was awarded Membership of the Order of Australia (AM) in 2011 "For service to medical oncology as a clinician, researcher, administrator and mentor, and to the community through leadership roles with cancer control organisations."	Aucentra Therapeutics Pty Ltd, Advisory Board Voluntary Chair of Board of Sax Institute
--	---	--